

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the Hearts for Kids campaign?

Hearts for Kids is an employee giving campaign that fuels the extraordinary work of the Dorion Family Pediatric Center, empowering children with advanced or serious illness and their families to live with comfort and dignity through compassionate hospice and palliative care. Community PēdsCare is the only program of its kind that surrounds children in every setting of care, seamlessly connecting hospitals, physicians' offices, clinics, and the community to ensure that every child and every family has the support they need to live the fullest life possible, no matter how long that journey may be.

What is the Dorion Family Pediatric Center?

The Dorion Family Pediatric Center is a one-of-a-kind sanctuary, created exclusively for children with serious illnesses and the families who love them, offering specialized pediatric care, compassionate support, and a healing environment unlike anything else in our community.

Why is employee giving important?

When employees give, it shows our collective commitment to the mission and the families we serve. Employee support also inspires confidence in the community and demonstrates that we truly believe in the care we provide.
